ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

٧.

In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. Defendant was present and represented by counsel. I conclude by a preponderance of the evidence the defendant is a serious flight risk and order the detention of the defendant pending trial in this case.  I find by a preponderance of the evidence that:    The defendant is not a citizen of the United States or lawfully admitted for permanent residence.   The defendant, at the time of the charged offense, was in the United States illegally.   If released herein, the defendant faces removal proceedings by the Bureau of Immigration and Customs Enforcement, placing him/her beyond the jurisdiction of this Court and the defendant has previously been deported or otherwise removed.   The defendant has no significant contacts in the United States or in the District of Arizona.   The defendant has no resources in the United States from which he/she might make a bond reasonably calculated to assure his/her future appearance.   The defendant has a prior criminal history.   The defendant lives/works in Mexico.   The defendant is an amnesty applicant but has no substantial ties in Arizona or in the United States and has substantial family ties to Mexico.   There is a record of prior failure to appear in court as ordered.   The defendant attempted to evade law enforcement contact by fleeing from law enforcement.   The defendant is facing a maximum of	Francis	sco Javier Torres-Reyes	Case Number:	15-01480MJ-001

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

- 1. There is a serious risk that the defendant will flee.
- 2. No condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required.

DIRECTIONS REGARDING DETENTION

The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his/her designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.

APPEALS AND THIRD PARTY RELEASE

IT IS ORDERED that should an appeal of this detention order be filed with the District Court, it is counsel's responsibility to deliver a copy of the motion for review/reconsideration to Pretrial Services at least one day prior to the hearing set before the District Court. Pursuant to Rule 59(a), FED.R.CRIM.P., effective December 1, 2009, Defendant shall have fourteen (14) days from the date of service of a copy of this order or after the oral order is stated on the record within which to file specific written objections with the district court. Failure to timely file objections in accordance with Rule 59(a) may waive the right to review. 59(a), FED.R.CRIM.P.
